

UA Local 488 Employment Opportunities

An employment opportunity for the position of two (2) Organizers is now available for application by all Journeymen members in good standing with UA Local Union #488.

UA Local 488 will be more active in the organizing of the non-union / union -of-convenience sectors for Residential, Industrial, Commercial and Institutional work. To this end, the Local will be taking resumes for these positions. One (1) position will be filled for early spring 2018, and once in place, a second Organizer will be hired. Any resumes submitted will be considered for both positions.

Interested candidates for this position are requested to email their resumes by no later than 12:00 NOON, Friday, March 16, 2018, to:

Robert Taylor - Business Manager/ Financial Secretary Email:
businessmanager@local488.ca

RESUMES WILL BE ACCEPTED VIA EMAIL ONLY!

RESPONSIBILITIES

- The Organizer position involves seeking out employment opportunities for Local 488 members by researching, contacting and signing-up Contractors to the Local's respective Collective Bargaining Agreements. Organizers are also required to police and monitor a variety of job sites, including the placement of members to these sites to assist in Organizing drives. Some of the organizing work may include working in cooperation with UA National Organizing initiatives.

This position is based on a 40-hour work-week but the hours of work may vary greatly, depending on the needs of the Local Union.

DURATION

- 90 Day probation period from start of job paid at ICI Foreman Base rate, with basic ICI Benefits. Upon successful completion of the probationary period, an increase in pay and other benefits will be applied.
- Reviewable two (2) year terms (by Business Manager, in consultation with Executive Board).

COMPENSATION

- Paid Statutory Holidays
- Full EPI Health & Welfare Benefits
- UA Employee Pension Plan

VACATION

- Three (3) weeks paid vacation after first year
