Teamsters Local 362 continue organizing push at Amazon fulfillment centre in Nisku, media invited to info session tomorrow

A large organizing drive by Teamsters Local 362 continues at Amazon's fulfillment centre at the Border Business Park, 1440 - 39 Ave, in Nisku.

Teamsters Local 362 and supporters will be outside the massive centre, supporting Amazon workers and informing them of how the union can help improve wages, benefits, pensions, health and safety, workplace rights and more on Sept. 9.

Media are invited to attend the information session.

Chance Hrycun, Vice President and Business Agent with Teamsters Local 362, will be available Sept. 9 at 5 p.m. at the Amazon fulfillment centre (1440 - 39 Ave) to speak with media and take questions. Chance can be reached at: 780-977-0328.

Interview requests may also be made through:

Tyler Bedford, Building Trades of Alberta Director of Communications and Relations: tbedford@bta.ca
